

THE REVIEW

August 23, 1900

The recent railway bridge calamities at Grand Falls on the C.P.R. and at Cody's on the Central Railway are causing much truth to be spoken of the disgraceful condition in which many dangerous railway structures are maintained. A railway commission such as they have in Maine would not be out of place in this Province.